

I would appreciate it very much if the FCC would step in and not permit the Sinclair Group to air "Stolen Honor" prior to the November 2, 2004 presidential election. If this Company feels the need to air it, then they should not have a problem airing it after the election. This type of airing is so one-sided and biased that I am sure the FCC will not allow this to be shown this close to a very close and very important election.

Thanks for any consideration you will provide to the above request.

Sincerely,
Rick D. Vermillion
